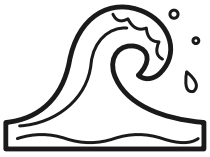
Trace: Wave גַּל

First trace each letter, then trace the whole word!



gal — wave

First, trace each letter — right to left <, follow the green numbers 1 then 2. Each number sits where that letter begins.

ג 1 ל 2

Now trace the whole word — the dark one first, then the gray ghosts:

☆ This Week's Parasha Play — bonus

חֻקַּת־בָּלָק Chukat–Balak

Shabbat · 2026-06-27

What is this week's parasha about?

This week we read two Torah portions together — Chukat, which teaches us some special mitzvot, and Balak. In Balak, a man named Bilam is asked to say unkind words about the Jewish people — but on the way, even his donkey speaks up! Every time Bilam opens his mouth, only blessings come out. Looking out at their cozy tents, he says the beautiful words: "Mah Tovu — how lovely are your tents!"

מַה טֹּבוּ אֹהָלֶיךָ

Mah tovu ohalecha — "How lovely are your tents!"

Talk about it — Gal & Galit's Dolphin Debate

Gal: Whoa — a donkey that can TALK? I would listen to that all day!

Galit: Me too! And the man who came to say something unkind looked out, saw everyone's cozy tents, and said "Mah Tovu — how lovely!"

Gal: Funny — he opened his mouth and only kind words came out.

Galit: Maybe seeing how warm and welcoming the homes looked changed his heart.

Now you try — talk it over with a buddy!

If a friend came to visit your home, what is one thing you would do to make them feel welcome?
