AT A GLANCE

What this pack is

Pesach — the Holiday of Freedom — taught the way young children actually learn: Seder-first, story-second, with a springtime closing motif. Lots of pictures. Plenty of white space. A warm teacher's voice baked into every speaker note.

The lesson opens with the joyful Seder customs — Haggadah, Seder plate, matzah, Mah Nishtanah, afikoman, Dayenu, Eliyahu HaNavi. Then a brief gentle look at the story behind it all. Slavery is framed as "hard work, not free." The ten plagues are named in the speaker notes only — never shown. No graphic imagery. No figural depictions of Moshe.

What your child will take away

- What Pesach is and why it's the Holiday of Freedom.
- How a Seder works — Haggadah, Seder plate, four cups, four questions.
- The kid-favorite customs — afikoman hunt, Dayenu, Eliyahu's cup.
- The story of Yetziat Mitzrayim — gentle, age-appropriate.
- Why Pesach is in Chodesh HaAviv — the springtime new beginnings tie.
