AT A GLANCE

What this pack is

Sukkot — z'man simchateinu, the time of our happiness — taught the way ages 5–12 actually learn: hands-on, joyful, plenty of pictures, with a warm teacher's voice baked into every speaker note.

The lesson is structured around the two big mitzvot of Sukkot — the sukkah itself (slides 3–6) and the Arba Minim (slides 7–12). It closes with the joyful finale: Hoshana Rabbah, Shemini Atzeret, and Simchat Torah dancing. Pure celebration, no heavy framing.

What your child will take away

- What Sukkot is and why it's z'man simchateinu.
- How to build a sukkah — walls, sechach, and decorations.
- The Arba Minim — lulav, etrog, hadas, aravah — each one's name and meaning.
- How to wave the lulav in six directions.
- Hoshana Rabbah, Shemini Atzeret, and Simchat Torah dancing.
