Say it, point to it

Name: _____ Date: _____

An adult says the word. Point to its picture, repeat it, then cover the English and try again. Cut cards apart for review.

סליחה

sorry / forgiveness

slee-KHAH

תשובה

return / repentance

teh-shoo-VAH

The heart picture reminds us to care. The curved path reminds us to return to better choices. These pictures are memory aids, not literal translations.

Draw a kind choice you could make today.

Which words help?

Name: _____ Date: _____

You knocked over a block tower.

- A. 'Sorry you are upset.'
 - B. 'I knocked it down. Can I help rebuild?'

You used a pencil without asking.

- A. 'I took it without asking. Here it is back.'
 - B. 'You have lots of pencils anyway.'

You left someone out of a game.

- A. 'You should have asked louder.'
 - B. 'I left you out. We can make room if you want.'

Say or write why your choice takes responsibility.
